

Let me introduce myself...My name is Sarah, and I've been hired to "renovate" the website. However, Sandra forgot to warn me about our very busy preparation to our even busier Christmas season. We need all the help we can get unpacking boxes full of exciting new home décor, fall, Halloween, and Christmas stuff. Therefore, the website renovation has been temporarily postponed. In the mean time, we will do our best to tell you about upcoming events and exciting new buys through our mailing list. Right now we have exciting new linen lines, curtain rods, quilts, pictures, and practically anything else country that you can imagine. If anyone has seen the newest Country Sampler Magazine, we have just about anything you might be looking for.

Since we have more new stock than we have room for, we are having a HUGE END OF SUMMER BLOWOUT SALE! Friday September 1st and Saturday September 2nd, everything in the store (except candles and selected furniture) is going to be 10% off, and a TON of other stuff is going to be 20-50% off. This is the first time Sandra has done anything like this; but you better get here early, because it could get pretty crazy in here. And when it's gone, it's gone.

Directly following our big sale, the season changes at It's A Crock. The store will explode in fall colors and Halloween motifs. We are also thrilled to introduce a new furniture line we are bringing in to compliment our home décor. This furniture is made from reclaimed wood and is just incredible (like everything else in the store). We have attached some pictures for you to get a sneak peak.

Last but not least, a reminder of our annual Christmas Open House Saturday November 4th and Sunday November 5th. We will be closed October 31st thru November 3rd to again transform the store into a winter wonderland. Our Open House weekend is the first (and sometimes last) look at our new Christmas decorations and ornaments. There is limited availability for some items, so you won't want to sleep in. And as if we haven't worked hard enough, Sandra and I will be packing up a portion of the store and going on tour. Well, we're taking a road trip to Lloydminster for a show at the Tropical Inn Friday November 10th and Saturday November 11th. Anyone in the neighborhood, please stop by and say hello. Don't worry, we'll remind you again later.

I hope to see or hear from you all soon.
