

It's The Most Decorative Time Of The Year

It's The Most Decorative Time Of The Year
With the kids all awaying

And everyone saying "You've got to be here!"

It's The Most Decorative Time Of The Year

It's the shop - happiest season of all

At the Crock's Christmas weekend

And everyone deep in

Decor for us all

It's the shop - happiest season of all

There'll be skirted trees dancing

Reindeer that are prancing

And ornaments hung in a row

There'll be wreaths you will cry for

And garlands to die for

To make your home star of the show.

It's The Most Decorative Time Of The Year

There'll be candles for burning

And everyone yearning

To buy all that's dear

It's The Most Decorative Time Of The Year

From snowflakes to teddy bears,

Quilt sets and dinnerwares

Presents for all those you know

You'll find Amy's first stocking

And Jimmy's horse rocking

All gift wrapped and ready to go.

It's The Most Decorative Time Of The Year

There'll be much overspending

And banks will be lending

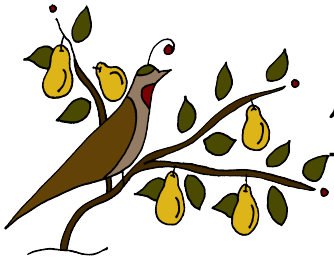

We'll stop out of fear!

It's The Most Wonderful Time

It's The Most Beautiful Time

It's The Most Decorative Time Of The Year

The Twelve Days of Christmas (condensed)

On the twelfth day of Christmas, my family gave to me
Twelve lighted garlands
Eleven snowmen candles
Ten santas laughing
Nine tapers burning
Eight teddies snuggling
Seven heav'nly angels
Six star tree toppers
Five wool stockings
Four cookie melts
Three quill pens
Two wooden doves
and a Crock Website shopping spree!

I hope you've all enjoyed our Crock's Christmas sing-along, picturing me belting it out at the top of my lungs. Christmas concert dates not yet set (just kidding). But we are holding auditions for our own entertainment if you'd like to come in and sing. Anyway, if you haven't guessed it by now, it's that time again!...
